

广州

Guangzhou ANCIENT COMMERCIAL CAPITAL WITH MODERN GLAMOUR

Guangzhou, formerly known as the 'City of the Goats' and also as the 'City of Flowers,' is one of the first commercial ports in China open to the world.

With a history of more than 2,200 years, the city was the birthplace of the ancient Maritime Silk Road and the center of Lingnan culture.

Today, Guangzhou, with its modern perspective, continues to play an important role as an economic, cultural, and transportation hub in China.

CANTON TOWER

- The tallest tower in China, a modern landmark of Guangzhou, famous for its unique "small waist" shape.

ANCIENT HALL OF THE CHAN CLAN

- The pearl of Lingnan architectural art, known for its exquisite decorative craftsmanship and profound historical and cultural heritage.

The night cruise on the Pearl River offers spectacular views of the city, including the Canton Tower, illuminated bridges, and modern buildings, creating an unforgettable experience.

In Guangzhou you can experience the profound heritage of Lingnan culture, savor authentic Cantonese cuisine, enjoy shopping and entertainment, and feel the perfect blend of nature and leisure. Guangzhou awaits your exploration and discovery.

